

Los Angeles County Community College - WIB Collaborative Data Subcommittee

Membership: Richard Verches, Jim Lancaster, Mark Pracher, Salomon Davila, Sandra Michael, Andrew Sanchez, Jemma Blake-Judd, Llanet Martin, Dan Wantanabe
Challenges	Opportunities	Tools and Resources Needed to Remedy Challenges or Pursue Opportunities
Interpreting Data in the same way, where are we getting our data that prioritize sectors. Ongoing	The law makes it clear that WIOA must be driven by data
WIOA requires more performance data for all trainees and not just for WIB trainees.	Aligning our WIB operations more closely with EDD using data.
Performance data and accessing individual performance data. Critical area that is important to us.	The alignment can improve working seamlessly together with seven WIBs in LA County
Are students from community colleges getting jobs? How are they tracked. The partnership can assist with this type of tracking.	Identifying regions in the State could be in our interest (LAEDC has 8 regions) to support how resources are allocated across the region.
Everything community colleges do in terms of training must lead to a job.	Realign resources in locations and programs.
Receiving data back from AJC to report if students have been placed, but are they being placed in career pathway?	Career Placement Centers on community colleges is a duplication but there may be an opportunity to work with AJC.
Gainful employment from DOE to track placements.	Make continuous investments in data, and recommend common
How do we get share information from one system to another.	LA County WIBs represent a third of the State and recommendations have much
Placement wont be an issue if we look at industry sector training.
Legislation is pushing us toward sector strategy
Community colleges cannot dispute data and are held accountable for data from state and federal level.
Need a way to valid data for COLA, to lower threshold of income.
WIOA mandates to college social security number. But must adhere to FERPA laws.
WIOA must review all adult education applications. This committee can assist.
Placement data needs to document the continuing need for the occupation.		