| | painstaking for all participants, so making this a foundational project might work better for our project; Lyla reviewed Goals/Activities for the current round of funding. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Alignment of K12 CTE Courses into Community College Pathways. 2. Implementation of Career Exploration/Selection. 3. Review & Revise Credit Granting Policies and Procedure. 4. Serve as Single Point of Contact for K12 Pathway Coordinators. 5. Ensure Student Success Strategies are in place. 6. Demonstrate an increased enrollment in identified TOP Code. | Programs should plan to begin spending next round of funding July 1, 2022 with a 12-month budget. |
| IV. Summer Bridge Program Presentations | Summer Bridge - ELAC Mayra Rodriguez, MA, ELAC Specialized AJCC/Pathways Coordinator Huskies Academy – aligned with LAUSD Schools and their summer school dates. Designed to meet needs in designated areas to provide support in English and Math, ran through non-credit basic skills. Friday focused on career exploration and academic, certificate, and careers they could pursue. The faculty very engaging, utilizing zoom, breakouts, group work, etc. They also utilized student/parent orientation, including assisting with student registration and placements. Summer CTE Bootcamp – Rio Hondo College Claudia Romo, MS, CTE Counselor CTE bootcamp - review of CTE summer bootcamps that have been held on campus (in-person) and at home (virtually) during Covid. Claudia explained how to provide hands-on experiences virtually, relying on what the schools use; google hangouts but students familiar with zoom so used that. The boot camp requires working with districts and vendors to ensure supplies secured for lab activities. This event is a team effort! No credit is offered. | Request PowerPoint presentations. |
| V. Table Discussions and Report | Lyla asked the Career Pathway Specialists and K12 Pathway Coordinators to work together. Questions that guided small group discussions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Identify target audience 2. What is the desired outcome (Begin with the end in mind)? 3. Who needs to be involved? 4. What do you need to accomplish your goal in terms of supplies, food, room, etc.? | Notes were compiled and transcribed into report for review by the project director. |
